

I support the current Net Neutrality rules. Comcast has already back-pedalled on their commitment not to charge certain providers extra to provide a fast lane. Those additional costs will most assuredly be passed on to consumers. Please keep the internet on a level playing field by retaining the current Net Neutrality standards. Thank you.